working to end domestic violence in our community

Since 1979, the Shelter for Help in Emergency has worked to support and empower victims of domestic/intimate partner violence through a combination of trauma-informed residential and community-based outreach services in the city of Charlottesville and the counties of Albemarle, Fluvanna, Greene, Louisa, and Nelson.

The Shelter for Help in Emergency is committed to providing a safe, supportive, confidential, and respectful environment in which survivors of domestic/intimate partner violence are empowered with the knowledge of personal and community resources, as well as the skills needed to make informed decisions for themselves and their families.

The Shelter Provides:

- A 24-hour hotline for crisis intervention and safety planning
- Temporary, emergency shelter for women, children, and men
- Information and Referrals
- Supportive individual and group counseling
- Legal Advocacy and Court Accompaniment
- Children and adolescent services
- Resource assistance for housing, employment, food, and clothing
- Community Education and Prevention Programs

All services are confidential and free of charge.
